

The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

The Six Sources of Unitarian Universalism

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic women and men which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit;
- Spiritual teachings of earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

“Embodied Spirituality”

Summer Services 2018

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Welcome & Call to Worship

Chalice Lighting (in unison) Christine Robinson

We gather this hour as people of faith
With joys and sorrows, gifts and needs.
We light this beacon of hope,
Sign of our quest for truth and meaning.
In celebration of the life we share together.

Joys & Sorrows - A time to briefly share the joys and sorrows of our lives (please refrain from event or political announcements).

Offering

Receiving the Offering (in unison) Erik Walker Wikstrom

For the gifts which we have received-and the gifts which we, ourselves, are-may we be truly grateful.
May we be committed to using these gifts
to make a difference in the world.

Weekly Program on Embodied Spirituality

*Extinguishing the Chalice (in unison) F. Gillis

May the Love which overcomes all differences, which heals all wounds, which puts to flight all fears,
which reconciles all who are separated,
be in and among us now and always.

To our guests: Worship in our tradition aims to create a foundation for people to carry out their own personal and spiritual pilgrimage. Unitarian Universalism is a Free Faith, open to inspiration from many sources. Our bond is a shared discernment of how this church ministers to our world.
